100 Years of Nordic Ski Jumping Godt Nytt År - Happy New Year!

Skiing originated in the mountains of the Scandinavian countries over 4000 years ago. Many Norwegians in the Chicago area have been, and still are skiers. One hundred years ago, the roots of ski jumping were formed by the Scandinavians of the midwest United States. From these early roots in 1905, there grew the current ski jump organization in Fox River Grove, IL. The jump has been rebuilt since that time, and it is now a world

Road Trip!

It's time to go to Madison on January 15, the week after our regular dinner. The Madison Torske Klub has again invited the Chicago Torske Klub to dinner at the prestigious Madison Club in Madison, Wisconsin.

Once again, the Klub is renting a comfortable tour bus, with a restroom facility, at no extra cost to the participants. Your dinner cost and that of cocktails will be at each member's expense. Note that parking at the Elks Club may be an issue. The Elks have other dinners scheduled that day and ask that off-lot street parking be used for our private venture.

As we did last time, we will attempt to provide "coffee and ..." before the ride. Each member is responsible for his own "refreshment" during the ride. Arrive early for the bus and enjoy a coffee. Schedule requires that we leave at 8:45 whether you are there or not. Thanks to our boss, Rob Alsaker and to our honorary member Trygve Lønnebotn, the boss of the Madison Torske Klub and Wisconsin Honorary Consul for Norway, for arranging this. Kudos to Bill Scheiderich for arranging the transportation again this year.

We have Madison Dinner reservations from member # 3, 6, 13C, 17B, 22, 50B, 51, 55, 73C, 78, 84, 98, 112B (Rockford Pickup), 115, 118 (for 2), 143, 147, 163, 167, 168, 171. The raffle was well stocked and followed by an auction, led by Don Hogansen, for the sword and dagger. These were donated by George Tarnow. Lowell Oilberg muscled out all competition for both items with a generous bid. Thanks to both gentleman for their participation. ■
