

Ladies Day- If Statues could Talk

The Annual Ladies Day Luncheon invites the ladies in the lives of our members, their friends and guests to February gathering. Our speaker for that day is Beth Sair, who has agreed to speak and share her passion and presentation “ If Statues Could Talk, What Stories Would They Tell?”

Travel virtually with Beth Sair throughout the Chicagoland area to hear “Talking Statues” tell their own compelling stories. The “Talking Statues” of Chicago share their stories as written by Chicagoans, voiced by Chicago actors, and co-produced by Chicago theaters. You’ll be introduced to Leif Ericson, who claims he actually discovered America 500 years before Columbus. George Washington thanks Haym Salomon, an important financier of the American Revolution. Aaron Montgomery Ward, voiced by Bill Kurtis, recounts the story of his famous department store, but more importantly his love for the environment. Amy Morton brings to life the sculpture “Helping Hands,” which commemorates Jane Addams. “Cloud Gate” (more familiarly known as “The Bean”) comes alive thanks to David Schwimmer’s monologue, and Bob Newhart represents himself.

Beth Sair’s passion for the city of Chicago has led her to document the “Talking Statues” located throughout Chicago. Enjoy this fascinating 50 minute PowerPoint presentation. We are also joined by Normnennes, who is the oldest continuously performing Norwegian Singing society of North America. They will start our luncheon with music.

Member Birthdays and News

This month we celebrate the birthdays of the February: Perry Straw, Ed Grendahl, Neil Andersen, Thor Jondahl, Fred Durler, Cedric Syrdahl, Dr. Ray Newgard, Phil Waters, David Svendsen and our newly minted nonagenarian, Edward Ekstrom. We note that Ed was born on a leap year day, Feb. 29. Does that mean you are really 23, Ed?

Carl Eglund 1931-2018

We were saddened to hear this month that we lost a long time member, Carl Eglund. Carl has quietly provided out group with a number of art pieces over the years, including this commemorative plate for our 50th anniversary in 2010, and we'll remember him at every raffle as he is the one that decorated that old Norwegian army helmet that we draw tickets from.

From his obituary: "He was a highly skilled and proud union painter for 45 years. Carl was a member of the Scandinavian Club, Chicago Torske Klub and the Viking AA where he excelled as a goalie for their soccer teams. As a coach for both the Viking AA and Norwegian American AA, he had a strong and positive influence on many young soccer players. He also served the National Soccer League as its head of officiating for several years. He remained an avid soccer fan and loved to follow his local sports teams. Carl loved to paint canvas art, plaques, and just about anything else his friends would ask him to paint for them. Carl was well known for his Swedish Rosmåling style, and has had several works of art put on display at the Swedish American Museum on Clark Street in Chicago. " Our prayers for Carl and his family.
